

TESTING CENTER RULES AND CONDITIONS

1. Test takers must comply with the Testing Center rules and conditions. Failing to do so may result in the cancellation of scores and money will not be refunded.
2. Proper identification is required to take an assessment. Proper identification includes: a valid government issued ID, current school ID, current Passport, Current Military card, Matricula Consular, etc... An ID must include the tester's first and last name, a picture, and signature. Name on the ID must match the name on the test.
3. BRING: (1) Current Photo ID (2) Blinn ID Number, (3) Test Payment Receipt (4) Proof of completed TSI Pre Assessment Activity (PAA), if taking the TSI test
4. DO NOT BRING: Food and/or drinks, cell phones, calculators, or any electronic devices, hats, caps, backpacks, large bags, or purses. If you bring these items, they will be checked and stowed in a locker.
5. Children are not permitted in the Testing Room. If the test taker has children he/she must make arrangements for their care prior to taking the assessment.
6. Check the allotted testing start times for each assessment on each campus. Allow adequate time to check in and receive instructions for the assessment (approximately 15 minutes). Come prepared and know the length of time allowed to take the test. Test taker should allow themselves enough time to complete the test prior to the scheduled closure of the Testing Center.
7. Test administrators are responsible for maintaining a secure test site. Test takers will comply and authorize the administrators to act as their agents in maintaining test security. Further, test takers agree to follow all reasonable oral or written instructions. Failure to comply may cause dismissal from the test administration and score(s) will be canceled.
8. There will be no communication with other test takers or individuals other than the test administrators during the test. Furthermore, the test taker must not disrupt or behave in a way that would adversely affect his/her performance or the performance of other test takers. Failure to comply with this requirement will be grounds for dismissal from the test administration and score(s) will be canceled.
9. All test questions and other test materials are the property of the testing company and/or its contractors. The materials must be kept confidential and secure from disclosure. These materials are not available to the test taker outside of the test administration, either before or after the test administration.
10. Testers will not remove any assessment materials including notes from the test administration room. Duplication of test materials, in whole or in part is prohibited. Upon the purchase of a test ticket the test taker is in agreement to not disclose any of the contents of the assessment, and will not duplicate or reproduce information contained in the test in whole or in part. Failure to comply with this requirement may result in being liable for the costs associated with the test and may be subject to other legal ramifications including injunctive relief for any such action on the test takers' part.
